GREGORY'S & JAQUITH'S TRUSS.

A NEWLY invented Truss is now presented to the public combining in a more convenient form, the advantage of all previous ones. It brings with it the recommendation of very many distinguished surgeons and physicians who have examined it. For the ease with which it is worn facility of graduating the pressure upon the hernia, and security in retaining it in its place; it is confidently recommended to all interested in such things as superior to all other trusses. By employing various forms of the hard or elastic rupture pad, as prospect of radical cure, or immunity from recurrence only may indicate, the instrument becomes adapted to all forms of hernia. All persons requiring Trusses are respectfully invited to call and examine these at MANN & SNOW'S Apothecary Store, No. 14 Main street, Bangor.

Among the numerous certificates in possession of the agents and proprietors, only the following is offered there:

BANGOR, July 8, 1837.

This may certify that I procured of Mr. J. S. Gregory, one of his Trusses, after making trial of it, with the privilege of returning if it did not suit. I laid aside a common (Marsh's) Truss and find this is the easiest and most effectual to retain the Hernia I have ever tried. From the trial I have made of this truss, I would recommend it to all afflicted with a rupture. (Signed) EDWARD HOYT.

Reference to the following physicians is kindly permitted. Dr. Rich; Dr Dickinson; Dr Dean; Dr Bartlett; Dr McRuer; Dr Cushing; Dr Proctor.

BANGOR,

MONDAY SEPTEMBER 25, 1837.

THE OCTOBER INSTALMENT OF THE SURPLUS MONEY.

The people may prepare themselves to witness and feel the fact, that no more money will be paid to them, unless the voice that Maine has uttered, and the voice which the Representative Districts, where a choice is yet to be made, shall utter, may compel government to pay according to promise. Is it not a most astounding fact, that in a country like ours so full of resources of life and energy, and all the elements of vigorous prosperity affected by no evil; neither war, pestilence or famine and where one short year since the treasury overflowed, and an immense surplus was ordered to be distributed now, before the last instalment is paid, a cry is raised by our rulers that all the money retained is gone, and that they must keep back the people's money, to pay officer's salaries in gold and silver. May not the people well ask, and ask loudly too why is all this? where is all that money. If our patriotism is appealed to and we are told that we ought to be willing to sustain government, and let them have the money, if wanted to carry on its operations we ask you why this necessity? Who has brought it about? The government told us one year ago that all this money was safe in Banks. Why not call upon the Banks, instead of keeping it back from the people. And if it is said the Banks cannot pay why did you take the public money from the place where it was safe, and put it into these hundreds of little Banks? You were warned by the Whigs over and over again, that such would be the result of your EXPERIMENT. And now, forsooth, the people are to be told that they must not complain of such management and the loss of their money, because it is needed at Washington. As well might a careless agent say he could not pay over money he had collected, because he had taken it from a safe place and let it out to some hundred irresponsible individuals. We had money enough to pay all expenses of government and this surplus beside. Let the people say where they have yet a chance in choosing Representatives, whether they are satisfied. If they are, let them choose men who will sustain Van Buren measures. If not, let them express their dissatisfaction by choosing Whigs.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

[Correspondence of the New York Express.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18th 4, P. M.

I have just returned from the Senate Chamber, which is crowded to suffocation in every part. The prison houses at Sing Sing or Blackwell's Island, for comfort, must be palaces compared with such a place; the Black Hole of Calcutta was never hotter or more uncomfortable.

Mr. Calhoun has given us his views, in full, in reference to the Sub-Treasury scheme, a National Bank, the State Banks, and upon the causes and consequences of the present pressure.

I have taken notes in full and will throw them together just as I have taken them, without form or order. Mr. C opened his speech by avowing in open terms, that he was in favor of separating the Government from the Banks. He spoke of the present state of things as exhibiting a practical separation, the connection only being between six or seven State Banks.

In speaking of the Deposit system, he pronounced it unsafe, impracticable and dangerous No man, he says, can favor their reunion fairly, no party will favor it at all. The Whigs predicted its failure, and history was but the fulfilment of prophecy. The Administration expected of the Banks more than they accomplished. and the Administration therefore will oppose all reunion. The Deposit Banks cannot, therefore expect any thing from any party.

Of the Sub-Treasury system he says that the Government have no alternative but to adopt the system, or a National Bank. One or the other is indispensable, and if the Government has a paper currency at all, it is solemnly bound to have a [illegible] and not State Banks to perform the fiscal duties of the Government. Separation is in toto or a U. S. Bank to the divorcement of a Government Bank! This Mr Calhoun has said time and again, is the only alternative.

He says the people are opposed to a U. S. Bank upon constitutional grounds, and the past and present pressure is nothing, if continued, COMPARED WITH THE PRESSURE WHICH WOULD FOLLOW A RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF A U. S. BANK. As a State Rights man he always opposed such an Institution and always should oppose it. Time and experience had only strengthened his position against such a Bank, a Bank which the Government had no right to adopt.

He says, also, that there is but one method of forming a reunion of the Bank with the Government, and that would be by adopting the Pennsylvania U. S. Bank as a deposite Bank, and compelling it to resume specie payments. He, (Mr C) however, says he shall zealously oppose any such union, because it would be a triumph of the Bank, and give a great power to the State of Pennsylvania.

Against a reunion of Banks with the Government, he urges the argument of Bank expansions and Bank capital, an increase of Banks, and all the evils attending Banking. The connection he says is corrupting, controlling, dangerous, and finally awful.

The causes of the pressure which now exists, he dates as far back as 1824. It began, he says in the triumph of the Tariff, which triumph of 1824 was consummated in 1828. The revenue created by high duties, he seems to think, must father the sins of most of our troubles.

Against the reunion of the Banks with the Government he further urges that all suspension of Specie payments in England and in the United States is caused by a union of the government with the Banks. The suspension of '37 in England, in the United States in 1813, and all [illegible] at a [illegible] are all traced to the [illegible], a [illegible] of the Government with the Banks.

By [illegible] Mr Calhoun has given the following [illegible] A divorcement; a [illegible] of specie paying banks be received for three fourths of the amount of revenue due to the Government, and that after January 1840, the complete divorcement shall take place. So much for Mr C. Hastily as I have written, I have tempered his plans and language I can offer no better comment upon the speech than to say that MR. BENTON IS NOW UP commending Mr. C's views, and claiming to be himself the author of Mr Calhoun's schemes. Calhoun and Benton should not support the same measures light and darkness are too much alike to be assimilated.

Mr. Walker has followed Mr. Benton, and moved to strike out the clause in the Bill, which gives interest to the Treasury Drafts.

In the House Mr Adams has presented ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTEEN PETITIONS against the annexation of Texas to the United States. The presentation of petitions have consumed the morning hour.

Mr. Cambreleng to-day reported bills as reported in the Senate, no difference in them, against district Banks and in favor of ware-houses. A discussion is now going on, calling upon Mr Woodbury for information relative to the Deposit Banks.

Monday Evening. The remarks of Mr. Calhoun were closed by offering an amendment which was afterwards withdrawn, and after some remarks by Messrs. Webster, Niles, Benton and King, the bill was reported to the Senate, and passed to be engrossed, yeas 43 nays 5.

The Senate then took up the bill extending for six months the payment of duty bonds. Mr Webster moved to substitute nine months, and the amendment having been carried, the bill was passed to be engrossed.

The bill to adjust the remaining claims upon the deposite Banks, having been amended, so as to allow them four, six, and nine months to settle up, passed to be engrossed.

Pending the bill authorizing merchandise to be deposited in the Public Stores, the Senate adjourned.

The House, after the morning hour had expired, went into committee of the Whole, on the bill withholding from the States the fourth instalment of the Surplus Revenue. Mr Bell spoke two hours against the bill the question was not taken when the House adjourned. During the discussion of this bill Mr Cambreleng, in order to show the necessity of the passage of the bill, introduced a statement of the condition of the treasury from which we gather the following facts

Tuesday, Sept. 19th.

The Senate and House came together at 11, A. M. this morning, being mutually agreed upon by both Houses.

In Senate The bill for issuing 10 million dollars worth of Treasury Notes was finally read and engrossed.

The bill for the extension of the time of payment upon Merchants' Bonds was also read and engrossed, as also the Bill for the settlement with, and regulation of, the Deposit Banks.

Mr Rives' Bill relating to the kind of money to be received in payment for the Public Dues, [the Bill corresponds with that reported in the House yesterday by Mr Garland of Virginia, and provides for the reception of the Notes of Specie paying Banks in payment of Government dues, and the employment of such Banks as fiscal agents,] came up for discussion Mr Rives stated his views at great length in defence of the Bill and in opposition to the views of the President of the United States, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Bill reported to the Senate by the Committee of Finance. Mr Rives takes strong ground against the Loco Focoism in the Message, and against the ultraism of his party His speech will be, for the most part, commended from one section of the country to the other. Mr Rives spoke more than two hours.

The resolution created a brief discussion of an hour, and was finally laid upon the table for reconsideration tomorrow. The orders of the day were made at one o'clock After the commitment to the Committee of Ways and Means, the three Bills this morning were engrossed by the Senate.

The House of Representatives spent the morning hour in the consideration of resolutions and petitions. A multitude of memorials were presented against the annexation of Texas, and several resolutions in relation to a Nat. Bank.

Mr Adams, of Mass offered the following resolution, which was read:

"Resolved, That the power of annexing the people of any independent foreign State to this Union is a power not delegated by the Constitution of the United States to their Congress, or to any Department of their Government, but reserved to the people."

Among the resolutions presented, was one from Mr Wise, of Virginia, in relation to our Indian affairs, calling for the appointment of a select committee to investigate the causes of the Florida war, the manner in which the war has been carried on, and every thing in relation to the controversy.

Mr Bell of Tenn. [illegible] took the floor upon the orders of the day, which was the bill for the postponement of the fourth instalment of the Surplus Revenue. Mr Bell opposed the Bill, bringing [illegible] argument against the passage of the bill. He places the Treasury Department in a much worse condition than the Treasurer himsel, and, moreover, gives undeniable facts in proof of his positions.

During the discussion of yesterday and to-day, an immense number of errors have been pointed out in the Report of the Secretary of the Treasury! The number and character of the errors are both ludicrous and astonishing. Some of the Administration members have pointed out one error of more than $500,000, and another of an amount exceeding $100,000. Every body grumbles at the Report in question, and speak of it as wholly inexcusable. Not a man in the House has brains enough to fathom it. All seem to acknowledge their inability but Mr Cambreleng, who thinks the Report of the Secretary excusable upon the ground that Finance is a SCIENCE few can understand.

THE MAINE VICTORY!

On Wednesday next, the Whigs of Portland celebrate "the change of opinion among the people of Maine, as manifested by the late elections.

A salute of 500 guns is to be fired in N. York in commemoration of the glorious victory of the Whigs of Maine

A salute of two hundred guns is to be fired by the Bostonians; one hundred from Bunker's Hill, and one hundred from Dorchester heights

The Whigs of Lowell and Newburyport are to celebrate the victory with proper demonstrations of joy.

The Whigs of Bath had a spirited celebration on Monday last. Salutes were fired morning noon and night, The cannon were fired alternatively from the shore and from a ship in the river, which was decorated for the occasion.

A salute of one hundred guns was fired at Brewer, on Monday evening.

One hundred guns were fired in Concord, N H., upon receipt of the glorious news from Maine.

The News from Maine is the most splendid illustration on record of the discriminating intelligence of a free people. Such events almost make us believe that the republic will be immortal. [Phila. Herald.

New York ought to fire guns a week steady in honor of Maine. The victory is worth $10,000,000 to our Commerce and Trade. [N. Y Express.

REPRESENTATIVES Eighty five Whig Representatives are ascertained to be elected to the next Legislature.

THE RESULT! The Portland Advertiser sums up the result in all the towns, and gives Mr. Kent a plurality over Mr. Parks of 600. The Argus says Mr. Kent is not elected, while at the same time, its published returns give Kent a larger plurality than the Advertiser.

STEAM BOAT ACCIDENT.

The steam boat New England, in attempting to pass on the eastern side of the island in Kennebec river, about four miles below Gardiner, struck on a ledge of rocks, and instantly filled She was immediately run ashore, and most of the furniture and bedding saved.

We are not informed of the extent of the damage, but she will be laid up for the remainder of this season, at least.

By a document accompanying the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, it appears that the greatest amount of tonnage registered and owned is in New York, 404,818 tons; in Boston the amount is 226,779 in Philadelphia, 91,765 in New-Orleans, 81,710 in New Bedford, 81,252 in Baltimore, 62,365 in Portland, 57,366 in Penobscot, 53,207 in Bath, 42,206 New London, 39,147.

ANOTHER NEW CONSTITUTION. There has been a grand Loco-foco Convention at Utica. Among their doings was the adoption of an entire new constitution for this state. The convention adjourned on Friday This constitution sweeps away all charters of every description, and gives nobody an exclusive right to any thing. Its heaviest blows however, are levelled against the Judiciary. [New York Express.

Congress have done one good thing this session. In revising and amending the Rules of the House, a new rule was adopted which prohibits the sale of ardent spirits in the capitol, or any of the public grounds.

It is said that a plan for a National Bank has been prepared, and will be brought forward in the House of Representatives, by Mr. Pope, of Kentucky.

Dates from New Orleans to the 12th inst. and Mobile to the 13th have been received in Boston. The yellow Fever in New Orleans has become prevalent and fatal. The True American estimates the deaths for the three days ending 12th inst. at full 200.

"A number of American troops having marched from Houlton to the Madawaska, a detachment of the 43d Light Infantry has subsequently been despatched from Fredericton to the same neighborhood, to watch the movements of Brother Jonathan Three officers and 60 rank and file, of 43d Light Infantry, are ordered to proceed from the garrison in St. John to Fredericton tomorrow morning, under command of Captain Egerton."

The same paper contains the following confirmation of the second arrest of Mr. Greely, the agent for taking the census of the Madawaska Territory.

"Mr. Greely in limbo again! We learn that the notorious Greely, who was a few weeks ago liberated from Fredericton jail, is again safely lodged in that building, having been a second time found engaged in exercising unlawful and seditious acts in the Madawaska Territory. The persevering gentleman will probable be kept in durance for a little longer time than on the former occasion the threats of the braggarts of Maine to the contrary notwithstanding."

To those who wish to be acquainted with the most approved mode of nourishing an inveterate border controversy, the germ of a future war, we recommend to watch the history of proceedings in relation to the North Eastern Boundary. Boston Daily Advr.

GREAT GALE AT APALACHICOLA.

We are indebted to a mercantile friend for the following account of a disastrous gale at Apalachicola.

"Apalachicola, Sept. 1, 1827. I write amid ruins A hurricane yesterday swept over our town and half destroyed it. Nearly every house is unroofed; a number have the upper story blown away, and several are level with the ground. Water street is nearly a continuous beach, covered four feet deep with drift wood Every vessel lying at the wharf at the commencement of the gale has been sunk or blown across Water street. The severity of the wind was unexampled, and beyond the power of description. It ranged from SE to N. I have sent out a party to examine our channels to look after our pilot boat, and even to look at the bar at the West pass.

Apalachicola, Sept. 1, 1837.

In the afternoon of the 30th ult. commenced a gale from ESE which did no damage other than blowing in the tide, until yesterday morning, about 4 o'clock, when its violence increased to an unparalled extent. About 12, the work of destruction commenced. I remained in our store until that time, trying to secure it; then sought safety in the streets, where it was hardly to be found, owing to the flying timbers, sheets of tin, zinc, &c. The gale continued with unabated violence until about 7 o'clock, last evening, when it gradually subsided.

The steamers Minerva, Edwin Forrest, and Henry Clowell, sunk at the wharf F. Short's house washed away, and the schr Orleans now lies where it stood. A sloop, (a large one too,) occupies the lot owned by Mr Peck.

The store occupied by Nourse & Brooks had front part unroofed and upper story of front and rear walls blown down

Extract of a letter from the intendant of Apalachicola:

"Many brick houses are unroofed, a number have the upper story blown away, and several are level with the ground Every vessel lying at the wharf at the commencement of the gale, has been sunk or blown across Water street. The severity of the wind was unexampled and beyond the power of description. It ranged from SE to N."

We are happy to perceive from the several letters we have seen from merchants and others from Apalachicola, that the interruption to business will be but temporary.

MORISON'S PILLS!!!
F. & I. S. WHITMAN, Agents, Bangor

THE friends of Hygeianism and the public generally, are again cautioned against the unprincipled attempts of apothecaries and quack doctors, to destroy all confidence in these highly valuable and almost indispensable family medicines, by the cry of imposition! exorbitant prices! falsehood! and more than all, by the astonishing benevolence of the craft in imparting to the world their wonderful discovery of the composition of them that a three dollar packet costs but one shilling that any person can make them, etc. Counterfeiters also, beware of the law. The British College of Health have recently recovered damages of the makers and venders of a spurious, dangerous article, in the courts of Massachusetts and New York; and their exclusive right and property in the sale, is firmly established and confirmed in this country.

Two hundred thousand dollars worth of these simple and effective medicines are sold annually in the United States, and injury from them is unheard of. One cause of the high price they bear, is a heavy export duty paid in England; yet they are incomparably cheaper than any patent medicines ever offered, saving, as they do, expensive and protracted fits of sickness.

The genuine article cannot be bought of apothecaries, travellers, or pedlars, they being denied the sale throughout the world. The only place in this section where they can be had, is at the store of F. & I. S. WHITMAN, Bangor; (whose signature is labelled on every packet they sell) where may be seen printed reports of recent trials, certificates of cures, etc. Subscriptions received to the Family Adviser and Hygeian Record, a paper published at New York at $1 per annum. nov 19.
